TAB Austria expands gaming platform - Gamble4Four and Lucky Wheels unveiled at ICE Totally Gaming 2016

TAB Austria officially launched two new gambling products at this year's ICE, which was from the 2nd – 4th February in London at ExCel. The leading provider had a very busy 2015 creating these brand new next-generation terminals. Clients were able to see the latest technology moving forward and how it makes players experience even more seamless and fun.

The new interactive game table Gamble4Four combines traditional Roulette in a full-sized multiplayer surface. It delivers all the benefits to increase profitability for operators and keep the core essence of gaming. The table can be equipped with bill acceptors and ticket printers or other pay out options. Lucky Wheels is an impressive new casino terminal with reliable hardware and innovative software. The cabinet is very ergonomically designed and provide a very special control panel for left and right hand players. Crystal clear graphics, smooth animation and advanced lighting underlines the stunning appearance. In addition, the new platform supports an entire suit of premium games and play mechanics that are tailored to the cabinet and can be adapt easily to individual regulations.

Our latest Roulette table Gamble4Four is seeing flexibility that operators only dream about. The terminal is very easy to move and the system is fully automated and no more dealer is required on the gaming floor, explained Siegfried Dattl jun. CEO of TAB Austria. The new Lucky Wheels is the upgrade of our very successful Casino terminal. The Golden Island gaming platform performs very strong in many emerging markets, such as Africa, he continued. Our reliable and very unbreakable cabinets are renowned worldwide and our games convince operators around the globe.

In addition to their new developments, TAB Austria highlighted its whole gaming range that meets all the demands of today's gaming including a huge selection of games with bonus features and jackpot values.
